POETICAL.

THE GENIUS OF DEATH.

What is death? 'Tis to be free!
No more to love or hope or fear;
To join the great equality,
All, all alike are humbled there!
The mighty grave
Wraps lord and slave;
Nor pride nor poverty dare come
Within that refuge house—the tomb!

Spirit with the drooping wing,
And the ever weeping eye,
Thou of all earth's kings art King!
Empires at thy footstool lie,
Beneath thee strew'd
Their multitude
Sink like waves upon the shore;
Stormy shall never rouse them more!

What's the grandeur of the earth
To the grandeur round thy throne?
Riches, glory, beauty, birth,
To thy kingdom all have gone!
Before thee stand
The wondrous hand,
Bards, heroes, sages, side by side,
Who darken'd nations when they died!

Earth has hosts, but thou can'st show
Many a million for her one;
Through thy gates the mortal flow
Has for countless years rolled on;
Back from the tomb
No step has come;
There fix'd till the last thunder sound
Shall bid thy pris'ners be unbound!

BE KIND TO EACH OTHER.

Be kind to each other!
The night's coming on,
When friend and when brother
Perchance may be gone!
Then midst our dejection,
How sweet to have earned
The best recollection—
Of kindness returned!

When day hath departed,
And Memory keeps
Her watch, broken-hearted,
Where all she loves sleeps!
Let falsehood assail not,
Nor envy disprove—
Let trifles prevail not
Against those you love!

Nor change with to-morrow,
Should fortune take wing,
But the deeper the sorrow
The closer still cling!
Oh! be kind to each other,
The night's coming on,
Perchance may be gone!

Miscellaneous.

A Gentle Hint

It was recently stated, among the news from the Southern States, that the Legislature of North Carolina had added to the bill granting civil rights to the emancipated slaves and free colored people of that commonwealth a proviso, declaring that the act should not go into effect until the State shall have been relieved of the operations and agents of the Freedmen's Bureau. This was not in accordance with the conditions required of North Carolina by President Johnson, in his authorization of the measures under which the State was reconstructed, but the parties in possession of the State government appear to have lost sight of this fact entirely, and to have imagined that they were free to do as they might choose. We see by a telegram, that the President, dissatisfied with this, has telegraphed to Governor Worth of North Carolina, reminding him that the proviso preventing the negroes from obtaining civil rights until the Freedmen's Bureau shall have been removed from the State, is not in accordance with the stipulations he had made in reorganizing the State, and urging that the bill ought to pass without the proviso. The civil rights to be granted to negroes under this bill are merely those of testifying in courts of justice, of holding property, of suing and being sued, of pleading and being impleaded, &c., and from these safeguards to liberty, so essential to the preservation of even the most elementary freedom, the North Carolina Legislature hangs back with as much reluctance as though some mighty concession were asked. We are glad to find the President still using his power and influence to bring these recusant States to their senses, and cannot doubt that the best results will ensue, as he has been so successful in all his previous attempts in that line. In their demands for full recognition these States all depend so much upon the support afforded them by the President, that if he were to give them to understand plainly that unless they rid their organizations of all objectionable features he would refuse his aid to their recognition, all he asks would be at once granted. The renewed request he has made of North Carolina looks in that way, and we sincerely trust that he may follow it up in other quarters, especially South Carolina, Mississippi, Louisiana and Virginia.—Phila. North American.

Col. ROBERT CARR, a Scotchman, who was an errand boy in the printing office of Benjamin Franklin, at Philadelphia, and subsequently learned the art of printing, died in Philadelphia last week, at the age of eighty-nine years.

Clymer on Johnson.

The Democratic State Convention, which met at Harrisburg, made an especial parade of admiration for President Johnson. The members seemed to be fairly oppressed with the weight of their love for him. They wished everybody to know how much they thought of him. They could hardly sleep o'nights for joy over his administration, his policy, his noble sentiments, his bold vindication of the Constitution, his splendid statesmanship, &c. Accordingly, to prevent their fierce devotion to President Johnson from striking in and proving fatal to their copperheadism, they nominated for Governor of Pennsylvania Senator Heister Clymer, who is on record in regard to the President in this fashion:

"I know, sir, that Andrew Johnson has gone as far as the farthest, and is ready to go still farther, to destroy and uproot every principle upon which this great and good government of ours is founded. I know that he has bent with suppliant knee before the throne of power. I know that for pelf or for some other consideration he has succumbed to every measure presented to him."

Now, if the peace wing of the party, which still feels such poignant sorrow for the untimely fate of the "stern statesman" and his confederacy, should take umbrage at the platform of the Convention, here is the record of the gubernatorial candidate to reconcile the indignants. Presuming it to be true that Mr. Clymer does, as he said, "know" all this of Andrew Johnson, may we not ask whether the said Andrew will not make especial haste and take particular pains to see that the said Clymer is duly elected Governor of Pennsylvania? How can he refuse to do so, when Clymer endorses—but pray, let us ask, what does Clymer endorse? He can hardly have the assurance, after such declarations as the above, to go through the farce of pretending to eulogize and sustain this very man against whom he was so malignant. Let us inquire of Mr. Clymer whether he now thinks he told the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth, when he made use of the above language; and if so, what he based his charges upon. If he did speak the truth, then he ought not now to be ashamed to explain himself. Let Mr. Clymer show what fundamental principle of the republic Andrew Johnson sought to uproot, and on what occasion he bent the suppliant knee for pelf.

It will be perceived that the above quoted passages contain charges against the political character and personal integrity of President Johnson. Let us separate these and ask attention to them:

1. Clymer charges that Andrew Johnson went as far as the farthest, and was ready to go still farther to destroy and uproot every principle upon which this government is founded. This is not only an attack upon his record, but assumes that he was unscrupulous in character and a fitting tool for any usurpation whatever.—The assertion is of the broadest and most sweeping kind, and refers not to one or a few principles as having been uprooted by him, but to "every principle upon which this great and good government is founded." There can be no mistake here—the orator went the whole length, and left no room for qualification. Nor did he rest his attack upon any record. He said he knew all this. That is, he, Heister Clymer, of his own personal cognizance, knew that Andrew Johnson was such a guilty wretch as he here portrayed him.

2. Mr. Clymer's assertion of his wonderful amount of knowledge went further, and led him to say that Andrew Johnson had 'bent with suppliant knees before the throne of power." When? For what purpose? The breaking out of the rebellion found him a member of the United States Senate. The "throne of power" could appoint him to no higher office than that, and the one it did give him—Governor of Tennessee—he had previously held by popular election.—What need, then, of bending the suppliant knee? But Mr. Clymer says he knows that Andrew Johnson did this, and either Mr. Clymer told the truth or he did not. If he did, then Andrew Johnson stands arraigned by him as a dishonorable man. If he did not tell the truth, what is Mr. Clymer's position? Is it not rather an awkward one for a candidate for Governor? To afford him an opportunity of escaping from this dilemma, we respectfully invite him to say when Andrew Johnson bent the suppliant knee to the throne of power, and for what object.

3. Mr. Clymer's next charge is a bolder one than either of the others, and merits more serious consideration. It amounts to nothing less than an arraignment of Andrew Johnson for corruption. We defy Mr. Clymer or any of his friends to give any other explanation to such a declaration as this: "I know that for pelf or some other consideration he has succumbed to every measure presented to him." This is no vague or indefinite allegation. It is clear, explicit, unequivocal. It marches right square up to the line, and says: "You, Andrew Johnson, have acted from corrupt and improper motives in your public course during this great war, and are unfit to be trusted, longer." As it would do Mr. Clymer no injustice, we respectfully ask him, as he said he knew these things of his own personal cognizance, to tell us the details. When did Andrew Johnson do a public act from motives of pelf? Let us know all about it. Johnson is now President, and if Mr. Clymer told the truth, the Constitution points out a way of testing it. If Mr. Clymer remains silent and refuses to explain, we leave the public to pronounce judgment upon his knowledge.—Phila. North American.

Gen. Grant and the Presidency.

The Galena (Illinois) Daily Gazette of the 14th instant, says the Pittsburg Commercial, has an article evidently written by Gen. Grant's immediate friend, called forth by the fact that "some time since a Republican and Union meeting in the city of Rochester, New York, has nominated Lieutenant General Grant as the Union candidate for the Presidency in 1868." It is very significant. While the attempt to nominate the General for that office is characterized as "premature agitation," the writer states that "his friends look forward with pride and hope to the time when he shall receive the highest office which can be bestowed upon him by a grateful people, as a reward for the inestimable services he has rendered to his country." The article says that "he takes no part with the President as against Congress, and no part with Congress as against the President." His "official acts" are his present platform.—"His views in regard to the necessity of the freedmen's bureau and the keeping the troops in the rebel States are recorded." "His orders for the protection of Union men in the South, his suppression of disloyal papers in the South, and his opinion of disloyal papers in the North, are also on record." "His written declaration, nearly three months in advance of Mr. Lincoln's immortal proclamation, that slavery should be wiped out before the war ended, is well known to all intelligent men." This important declaration is succeeded by an italicised passage, which is as follows:

"We know that all General Grant's hopes and sympathies are with the great and patriotic Union party of this country. In feeling and in sentiment he is strongly identified with the millions of loyal people, who, in the long years of war and carnage and blood, gave their hearts, their blood, and their treasure to their country. We have neither sympathy nor toleration for any party, nor any set of men, who were against the country in [illegible] which he granted, the pleasantness with which he refused, a request or favor. He was yet young, and life held out to him many alluring hopes, promises of fame.—He had, indeed, already attained success, and nothing more remained for him but to wear his "blushing honors thick upon him," when he is suddenly cut off in the horrible manner we have described. He has long been in General Grant's confidence, and the General loved him as a son. Within a month past he introduced the colonel into his own family, and made him, as far as he could, a member of it.

Colonel Bowers was born in Mount Carmel, Illinois, in 1837. In early life he learned the trade of the printer, and when the war broke out was engaged in publishing a paper in his native place. He was at one time the best compositor in the Missouri Republican office. He was originally a private in one of the Illinois regiments. His last promotion bore date March 13, 1865, and read "Brevet Lieutenant Colonel Theodore S Bowers, United States army, to be colonel by brevet, for faithful and meritorious services during the war."

The Civil Rights Bill.

The amendments to the Civil Rights Bill, as it came from the House, were accepted by the U. S. Senate without other opposition than a futile attempt of Mr. Davis of Kentucky to postpone action indefinitely. The bill now needs only the signature of the President to become the law of the land, and to secure to all persons born in United States, not aliens, and excepting Indians not taxed, the rights of citizenship. The provisions of the bill are ample to protect the citizen in his rights, so far as they can be secured by a general law, and it is a fitting corollary to the act of Emancipation. It is a great and important step gained, and will go further toward a true reconstruction of the lately rebellious States than any measure yet stamped upon the statute book of the Union. The country will look anxiously for the announcement that it has received the signature of the President.—N. Y. Tribune.

It is stated that to exterminate vermin from any animal it is only necessary to cover him completely with grease or oil. Any kind of oil will do. It appears that the vermin breathe through small holes situated in various parts of their bodies, which the oil or grease closes up, and they immediately die.

One of those bores who are always suggesting disagreeable things says: "Great eaters never live long." That may be, but they have a good time while it lasts, they think.

"IMPARTING pleasure is like putting money out at interest." It benefits both the lender and borrower at once. No one can be really and truly happy unless others share that happiness.

Gen. Butler.

The counsel for Smith Brothers, of New Orleans, in the suit against General Butler for the recovery of $50,000, in gold seized by him at New Orleans, in 1862, as money stolen from the United States Mint, has written Gen. Butler that the plaintiffs in the case were satisfied that he (Gen. Butler) had good grounds for making the seizure, and that if he would assure them that the money had been held intact, and would deliver the same over to them, they would give a receipt therefor in full, and make no claim for interest or costs. Gen. Butler replied that he had held the gold for the Government, and that it had as yet come to no decision in the matter, and that, as he was now a civilian, he did not feel disposed to await their action longer. He also stated that the money had not been used or speculated with in any way, but was deposited in the vaults of a Boston Bank. Smith Brothers, through their counsel, replied that the explanation was satisfactory, and Gen. Butler at once gave his check on the Boston bank for the money. After this was done, full receipts were given and the matter settled.

MAXIMILIAN'S EUROPEAN HOME.—A writer in Blackwood thus describes Miramar, Maximilian's palace on the Adriatic:

"On a grand bold bluff over the Adriatic stands one of the most picturesque chateaux I ever beheld, almost covering this plateau, save where a little space is stolen from between projecting arms of the building for a flower knot or a fountain. It displays all that can be accomplished by irregular outline and varied color. Tower and minaret and butress, projecting window and deep shadowing cornice, with ornamented architrave and stained glass, have done their very best, and made one of the most delightful houses to live in and one of the handsomest to look at in Europe. Splendid gardens lie to the rear, backed by a noble forest, stretching away to the foot of a mountain.

"This elegant establishment was built by Maximilian, who lavished upon it all the resources which wealth and refined taste could command, to make it an earthly paradise; yet he has left this scene of peaceful enjoyment for the cares and dangers of imperial life among a hostile people. It is only another illustration of the restlessness of man, who never is but always to be blest, and no matter what his condition in achievements, continually longs for something beyond present possession."

GAMBLING is said to prevail to a frightful extent at Albany this winter. Among the unfortunate ones is a member of the Legislature from New York city, who is reported to have lost over $40,000 during the past month.

The Rebel Spirit.

The following case, which occurred in Kentucky, shows that if "Slavery is dead," its spirit still lives in all its fiendish malignity:

Reuben Harris was the slave of Isaac Rucker who lived in Lyon county, between the Cumberland and Tennessee rivers. About a year ago Reuben directed the Union armies to where two companies of the 25th Kentucky rebel regiment were hid in the wilderness. Two of the sons of Isaac Ruckner were officers in company E of said regiment. They were taken prisoners by our army.—Isaac, through fear, fled. The slaves, by the advice of our soldiers, still abode on the plantation and worked it. On the 17th day of January, Ruckner and his two sons returned to the plantation. Upon inquiry around they found that Reuben reported on them, by which means they were taken.

Isaac Rucker then took Reuben, his former slave, stripped him, and tied him up by his wrists to a pole, between two trees, just so that his toes could touch the ground. He then with his own hands, whipped him, and continued to whip him for hours, frequently saying that he would cut him in two. His wife and family were present; groaning in agony at the spectacle. The wretch turned and struck the wife ten blows, and told her to go off and mind her own business. One of the black man's sons he made bring him (the rebel) whisky several times while he was applying the cruel lash to his father. In vain did the poor sufferer cry for mercy. "Did you report on us?" was asked. 'I never told you a lie, massa, and never will. I did report on you.' Well, I will whip you to death.'—And he did whip on till the whole body around was cut up most horribly. From 11 A. M. till sunset the martyrdom went on. This was Thursday night. The poor sufferer lingered in agony till Sunday morning, when death released him from earthly sorrows. I should add, several white men stood around witnessing the flogging, and encouraged it on.

The slaveholding brute threatened all the family with death. They fled to Paducah by night, crossed the Ohio, took cars on the Illinois Central Railroad, and came on to Chicago—the widowed wife, and four sons. The railroad conductor—to his honor be it—is not necessary on a statement of facts like that just quoted. The men who asked that this spirit of atrocity should be crushed, are called "fanatics," and charged with being in rebellion; such, at least, is the copperhead position. Surely, it will yet require the ponderous blow of a strong arm before the whipped rebels of the South will acknowledge either the authority of the Government or the rights of humanity.—Har. Tel.

THE Reading Journal, published at the home of Heister Clymer, the Democratic nominee for Governor, says:

"Against Mr. Clymer, personally, we have nothing to say—against him politically, we will have much to say in the course of the campaign. His record, fortunately for the people, is a public one, and he cannot hide it.—He was the Vallandigham of Pennsylvania throughout the war, and when his votes, his speeches, his acts, are thoroughly ventilated, and the people—and especially the returned soldiers—come to know his political status, he will meet with a condemnation scarcely less overwhelming than was that which befel Vallandigham, when he ran for a similar office two years ago, in the Buckeye State."

RELIGIOUS BELIEF OF THE PRESIDENTS.—The religious belief of the deceased Presidents of the United States, as indicated by their attendance on public worship, and evidence afforded in their writings, may be summed up as follows: Washington, Madison, Monroe, Harrison, Tyler and Taylor, were Episcopalians; Jefferson, John Adams and John Quincy Adams, were Unitarians; Jackson, Polk and Lincoln, were Presbyterians; Van Buren was of the Dutch Reformed Church. The surviving Presidents are Fillmore, Unitarian; Pierce, an Episcopalian; Buchanan, a Presbyterian; and the present Chief Magistrate, Johnson, who is a Presbyterian.

HOW MEN SHOULD TREAT WOMEN.—A Persian poet gives the following instructions upon this important subject: "When thou art married, seek to please thy wife; but listen not to all she says. From man's right side a rib was taken to form a woman, and never was there seen a rib quite straight. And wouldst thou straighten it? It breaks, but bends not.—Since then, 'tis plain that crooked is woman's temper, forgive her faults and blame her not; nor let her anger thee, nor coercion use, as all is vain to straighten what is curved."

A MATRON in the neighborhood of Corry, proposes to call her infant son Petroleum. She assigns as her excuse for this, that whenever she spanks him she will "strike ile."

Marvellous Cave Story.

A St. Joseph, Missouri, correspondent of the St. Louis Republican, says that a wonderful cave has been found in the bluffs about a mile above St. Joseph, which has been explored by some of the leading citizens of the place. Provided with all things necessary, they entered the cavern about 10 A. M., when they returned expressing the greatest wonder, and relating marvels too strange almost for credence. Before proceeding very far they came to a vast and splendid chamber, where ceilings and sides were adorned with various stalactites of every form and hue, and transparent in their brightness. Fish and beasts and human forms were represented by this brilliant secretion, and massive curtains of it, brilliant in hue, are pendant from the ceiling and hung heavily around the walls. Passing through this vast chamber, they found themselves in a sort of grotto whose sides were formed of crystal columns and whose arched ceiling resembling a gorgeous bow of diamonds. Emerging thence, they beheld another hall vaster than the first one and far more gorgeous in all its appointments. Here were niches, columns, recesses, fountains, all arranged as if by the hand of some great artist; and what was stranger still, a sort of low melody seemed to fill all the space.—The last they attributed to the murmur of a crystal streamlet, which leaped from a portion of the wall, and ran into a recess over glittering pebbles. On one side was a raised platform of pure white marble, extending the entire length of the room, and on this platform they discovered a human skeleton of gigantic size, and in excellent preservation. Its length, from head to foot, was thirty-eight feet six inches. They could not measure the circumference of the head, but it was immense they should imagine about six feet. Two of the teeth were dislocated and these they bro't to town, and I have seen. They are now on the counter of the office of the Pacific Hotel, for general inspection. One of them is ten inches in circumference, and the other about six. It is almost impossible to imagine an animal large enough to use such masticators.

A HIGHWAYMAN undertook to rob Mr. Jones. He met Jones in a wood over in Jersey. He asked Jones for half an hour. At the expiration of that time Jones came in, and the highwayman commenced. Jones' amounted to just eighteen cents.

"Is that all you've got?"

"Every cent."

"What made you fight so long?"

"Didn't want to be exposed. Bad enough to have only eighteen cents; but a great deal worse to have anybody know it."

A GENTLE HINT.—At a concert which took place lately, a gentleman in the audience, rose up just as the third piece in the programme had been performed, and said: "Mr. Conductor, will you oblige me, sir, by requesting your vocalists either to sing louder, or to sing in whispers, as there is a conversation going on close by where I sit, that is conducted in such a loud tone as to hinder my enjoyment of the music. I prefer certainly to hear the concert; but if I cannot be so privileged, I desire to hear the conversation." There was an extremely quiet and attentive audience in the hall during the rest of the evening.

THE "Johnson" party is in the ascendant at Nahant. At the recent town meeting the following officers were elected: Moderator — David Johnson. Town Clerk—A. D. Johnson. Selectmen and Assessors—W. H Johnson, E. B Johnson, C. Harvey Johnson. Treasurer and Collector—W. W Johnson. School Committee—Franklin B. Johnson, Walter Johnson. George L. Johnson was also appointed a Constable.

ASK the man upon whom the world has bestowed honors, how he gained that eminence, and he will tell you that it was by discipline in a 'youthful school of experience. The training which he received at the hands of his parents, and the restraint of a home influence were a part of that discipline which has brought him to a place of honor and usefulness. But he has not reached it without great trials, bitter experience and hard-earned lessons.

LUCK AND LABOR.—Luck is ever waiting for something to turn up. Labor, with keen eyes and strong will, will turn up something. Luck lies in bed and wishes the postman would bring him news of a legacy. Labor turns out at six o'clock, and with busy pen or ringing hammer, lays the foundation of a competence. Luck whines. Labor whistles. Luck relies on chances. Labor on character. Luck slips downward to indigence. Labor strides upward and to independence.

IT was the request of the late Bishop Fitzpatrick, of Boston, just before he died, that when dead, no flowers should be put around him. "Devote flowers," he said, "to the sanctuary and to the young, but do not mingle their purity with the earth's corruption."

Religious Intelligence.

A correspondent of the Register (Unitarian) thinks that "liberal theology," is not likely to overspread the South, but that St. Louis, Louisville and Baltimore will be the outer line of posts of the denomination. The fact is, he writes, Unitarianism is looked at not only as a Northern, but a Massachusetts idea, and that is enough. Unitarians, he thinks, have suffered too much from Massachusetts' idea. You may get Unitarianism at Charleston, if it comes from an Englishman; but not if it comes from a New Englander.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Cincinnati, have had opened, under their auspices, a new coffee saloon, at the public landing, in the Bethel Chapel building in that city, for the benefit of working men. For five cents, a man can procure a plate of crackers and a cup of coffee; or if it preferred, a large plate of soup and crackers will be given for the same amount. The object of the Bethel room, is to supply a place of healthful rest and recreation to the working men, without the temptation to drink and dissipation.

A number of influential and wealthy men in New York City, who are staunch supporters of Henry Ward Beecher in his present conservative attitude, have given him a call. They consider him too brilliant a light for Brooklyn, and offer to raise $180,000 for the purpose of setting up a tabernacle and parsonage for him in New York. It is not probable, however, that Mr. Beecher will accept the offer. He is too closely wedded to Brooklyn, where he has labored faithfully for twenty years.

Quite an extensive revival prevails in the Rev. Theodore L. Cuyler's church, Brooklyn, and the rather unusual fact exists, that the revival of religion is connected with the revival of temperance. This church, which installed its first pastor six years ago, now numbers eight hundred members, and one of the largest congregations in the land.

The Secretary of the American Congregation announces that the contributions thus far ascertained on Forefathers' Sunday, for the $200,000 Building Fund recommended to the Nation, on the 3d inst., amounts to $85,436.42; a number of Gundemann reports the whole "Propagation of Missionary Societies in the Parts"—founded in 1701.

Farm, House, &c.

HORSES OVERREACHING.—It is very annoying to ride or drive a horse that is constantly pounding his fore shoes with his hind ones. It is click, click all the time. We have had a number of horses with this fault, but latterly have been able to cure them or greatly benefit them by a peculiarity of shoeing. Make high heel-caulks on the fore feet and very low toe-caulks, standing a little under and the shoe setting well backward. The fore foot thus managed will roll over and be sooner out of the way of the hind foot. On the hind foot make the heel-caulk low and the toe-caulk high, projecting forward. If these directions are followed, the horse will travel clean, and the habit will soon be broken up.—Rural World.

WHITEWASH.—White fences and outbuildings indicate the thrifty farmer and a tidy household. Put half a bushel of unslacked lime in a clean, tight barrel, pour over it boiling water until it is covered five inches, stir briskly until the lime is thoroughly slacked, then add more water until it is as thin as desired; next add two pounds of sulphate of zinc and one of common salt; then apply with a common whitewash brush, giving a good coat in April and October, or at least once a year.

PULSATION OF ANIMALS.—Vatel, the great veterinary surgeon of the continent, states that the rate of pulsation of the different domestic animals of the farm is as follows: The horse, 32 to 38 pulsations per minute; an ox or cow, 25 to 42; a sheep, 70 to 79; the ass, 48 to 54; goat, 72 to 76; the dog, 90 to 100; the cat, 110 to 120; the rabbit, 120; and guinea pig, 140; of fowls, the hen, 140, the duck, 135.

PASTURING ANIMALS.—When eight cows have been in a pasture, and no longer obtain nourishment, two horses will do very well there for some days, and when there is nothing left for the horses, four sheep will live upon it; this not only proceeds from their differing in the choice of plants, but from the formation of their mouths, which are not equally adapted to lay hold of the grass.

POULTRY.—When poultry are fed with grain or meal only once a day, let it be towards evening, rather than morning, to induce them to seek after their own living, and they will then consume more insects and grass.

ANIMAL FATS are much better than vegetable oil for all kinds of agricultural machinery.

CORN MEAL should never be ground fine. It injures its wholeness.

EDITORS AND PROPRIETORS.

MARCH 28'h, 1866.

FOR GOVERNOR,

GEN. JOHN W. GEARY,

OF CUMBERLAND COUNTY.

THE Legislature has again passed the Philadelphia & Erie Rail Road bill, vetoed last week by the Governor, amended to meet the views of the Governor. The Pittsburg press made a terrible onslaught on this bill, for no other reason that we can conceive except the fear that Pittsburg might suffer in the development of other parts of the State. As the portions of the State to be affected by the bill did not oppose its passage, we see no reason why Pittsburg should interfere. We do not believe that those who voted for the bill were influenced by corrupt motives. Gov. Curtin said there was no ground for such a charge. On looking over the list we find many of the best and purest men of both Houses and of both political parties. When men oppose a measure, it is easy for them to raise this cry As Senator Lowry, of Erie, led off in this cry, when he was almost alone in the Senate in opposing the bill, and his record is to say the least no better than other men, it is fair to presume the majority were in the right. The case at Harrisburg stands about thus: Two Rail Road Companies, the Pennsylvania Central and Atlantic and Great Western, are both fighting for certain privileges. Members are bound to vote one way or the other, and let him vote as he will, he will be accused of doing so from improper motives. What we want is to see the resources of the State developed, and we don't care much who does it. If it is necessary to give a company five years lease to develop certain sections, it is better to do it.

THE following is the new election law, passed in the House on Friday regulating the mode of voting at all elections in the several counties of this Commonwealth:

SEC. 1. Be it enacted, &c, That the qualified voters of the several counties of this Commonwealth, at all general, township, borough and special elections, are hereby hereafter authorized to vote by tickets printed as follows: One ticket shall embrace the all State officers voted for, and to be labelled "State;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all county officers voted for, including office of Senator and members of the General Assembly, if voted for, and members of Congress, if voted for, and be labelled "county;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all township officers voted for, and be labelled "township;" one ticket shall embrace the names of all borough officers voted for, and be labelled "borough;" and each class shall be deposited in separate ballot boxes.

SEC. 2. That it shall be the duty of the sheriffs in the several counties of this Commonwealth, to insert in their election proclamations hereafter issued the first section of this act.

THE following is the bill introduced and passed on motion of Mr. Quay, exempting soldiers from taxation for county purposes:

An Act to exempt persons who have been in the military service of the United States, and been honorably discharged therefrom, from the payment of county and per capita tax and militia fines.

Be it enacted, &c, That all persons who have been mustered into the military service of the United States, and have served therein for a period of not less than nine months, in the war to suppress rebellion, and their property, and those persons who have been discharged from said service, or account of wounds or physical disability contracted in such service, and their property, and the widows and orphans of such persons and their property, shall be exempt from the payment of all bounty and per capita tax, loaned or to be loaned, for paying bounties to volunteers in the several counties of this Commonwealth; and such persons shall also be exempt from the payment of militia fines.

MORE YET.—A gentleman in New Brighton, who is celebrated for his extensive reading and fine literary taste, informs us that the Thomas Henry article in the Beaver County Local, signed "Vindex," was stolen almost entirely from the celebrated letters of "Junius." On examination we find our informant is correct. His article is almost a verbatim copy throughout. This is decidedly rich. To complete baseness, we have added that of theft, and consequently any merit there might be in the originality is taken from the writer, and in his article we find nothing to recommend, but everything to condemn.

THE Republican State Convention of Rhode Island nominated General Burnside for Governer.

THE editor of the Local charges in his last issue that the District Attorney made a proposition to compromise the prosecution for Libel, on his retreating. As the District Attorney has already denied making any such proposition, it is unnecessary to repeat what was written last week. It is a matter of great surprise to the writer that Mr. Odell would be guilty of such prevarication. The District Attorney as well the editor of the Local shortly after his arrest, having stopped to speak to him in reference to another matter. His arrest was spoken of by the writer, who said he had just been informed by Esq. Wilson he had been arrested for Libel. Mr. Odell replied by saying that Beighley had prosecuted him for libel, and that he was informed it was the practice of Republicans in this county to try and scare Democratic editors by prosecutions. The writer replied that but one prosecution had ever been commenced in the county since he came to it, and that was against Mr. Long, editor of the Star, for a gross libel on Gov. Curtin. "Yes," said Mr. Odell, "and Mr. Long informed me he could have proved all he stated in relation to Curtin." The writer asked him why Long had retracted then, if he could prove it; that the statement was untrue, beyond all doubt, and that Long had publicly acknowledged the fact. Odell said he could prove that what he had published of Beighley was true; he could prove all the charges he had made, and he would be able to show Beighley had no character to lose, by his own neighbors. The writer then said that so far as he had attacked his private character, the truth could not be given in evidence without Mr. Beighley permitted it, but that he had, when a candidate, disproved all his statements; and before Odell replied, the writer said, "As I will be against you on the trial of your case, you must not say anything I can take advantage of, and I don't wish to say anything you can take advantage of, so we will drop the subject."

The above is a full and candid statement of what was said by both parties, and if Mr. Odell remembers correctly, and will only state what he remembers, his statement will not differ in any respect from the one given. If he could infer, from what was said, we were making a proposition to compromise, he infers what no one else can, and what was never intended.—Why did not Mr. Odell, when on oath, state who had made propositions to statement. He did his utmost that the District Attorney said he had not seen or consulted with Beighley since the prosecution was commenced, and although he had heard it spoken of, did not know, until informed by Esq. Wilson, that a prosecution had been commenced. As the writer was leaving, the editor of the Local said he wished he had continued his good offices toward him—that he had stated in the Argus that he was instrumental in preventing two prosecutions, and he wished he had prevented another. In reply, he was assured we had nothing to do with the bringing of the prosecution, did not counsel it, but thought too much had been said, and felt when we first saw "Vindex's" article, like prosecuting not him so much as the writer—that the using of a newspaper to abuse men was wrong. Odell said he would not have published "Vindex's" article had it not come from a Republican, and that so long as could produce the documents he supposed we would let him alone This is, in substance, what occurred, and we ask Mr. Odell if our statement is not correct. He was considerably excited, but declared he was not alarmed as to the result. Not having talked with Mr. Beighley after commencing the prosecution, and telling Odell of the fact, he could not suppose that there was any intention of offering terms of compromise. This statement in reference to a compromise, was lugged in to effect the case, and as they cannot reach Mr. Beighley, they charge it upon the District Attorney, because he happened to converse with the editor of the Local the same day. We have been informed that the editor of the Local and his friends were very busy circulating that terms of compromise had been offered. They care little for the truth of the statement it seems, and took good care when on oath to avoid answering a question that was asked to determine this very matter.

As we stated last week, we have never attacked a single Democrat in the county since our connection with the Argus, and an editor who permits his columns to be used for that purpose is unworthy of public favor.—There are certain Democrats, however, who, it is believed, preside over the editor of the Local, and are really chargeable with his faults and his malice, who are not invulnerable, and who may find they cannot always shield themselves behind another.—When we treat men well, we expect like treatment in return.

CONGRESS.

SENATE.

MARCH 21.—Mr. Brown introduced a bill to aid the construction of the Kansas and Neosho Valley Railroad—a road connecting the Great Lakes and the Gulf of Mexico. Memorials were presented from the Minnesota Legislature for an appropriation to improve the Lake Superior harbors. Petitions were presented from colored citizens of Virginia, and from Pennsylvania, for equal rights; for a protective tariff, and from assistant-assessors for increase of pay. A resolution was adapted authorizing a contract with Little, Brown & Co. for publishing the U. S. Statutes; Bills were passed to grant land to Kansas in aid of the Northern Kansas Railroad; and to punish the alteration, forgery &c., of official bonds and other papers. Bills were reported from the Judiciary Committee concerning appeals, &c.; and to provide for reporting the decisions of the Supreme Court. The West Indies Telegraph bill was taken up. Mr. Sherman's amendment authorizing Congress to fix the rate of charges was rejected 17 to 19. The time for completion of the work was limited to three years, and the bill was passed. The House resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Navy to supply vessels for quarantine purposes, was passed with an amendment limiting it to one year. A bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to issue bonds in place of others lost was passed. The bill to incorporate the National Mutual Protective Homestead Company was called up, debated and postponed till today. After some routine business and an executive session, the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

A bill to aid the Northern Pacific Railroad was reported back from Committee Bills were introduced to equalize bounties, and to aid the Iowa Central Railroad. Resolutions of the Legislatures of Oregon and Iowa were presented. The Diplomatic appropriation bill was amended by authorizing a Solicitor to the State Department at $3,000 a year, and passed.—The bill to facilitate commercial, postal, and military communication between the States was passed, 79 to 46 Some agricultural matters were reported on adversely, and the House accepted the reports. A resolution was adopted to inquire as to making appropriation to complete cemeteries for the Union soldiers. A resolution was adopted to print 10,000 copies for the House and 5,000 for the Commissioner of the Annual Report on Patents. After some matters of no general interest had been disposed of, the House went into Committee of Whole, and considered the bill to reimburse Pennsylvania for war expenses. After a long debate, the Committee rose without a vote, and the House adjourned.

SENATE.

[illegible] from savings bank officers that deposits in such banks be exempt from tax. Resolutions were adopted to print 5,000 copies of special report of the Revenue Commission, and directing an inquiry as to the expediency of remitting the peddler's license tax to disabled soldiers A bill to transfer the Smithsonian library to the library of Congress was reported and laid over. Bills were passed to erect Louisiana and California into each a judicial district, and to authorize the construction of a bridge across the Mississippi at St. Louis. A protest was presented against the pending resolution for enforcement of quarantine against cholera. Mr. Trumbull called up the case of John P. Stockton, Senator from New Jersey, which occupied the remainder of the session, and was not concluded when the Senate adjourned.

HOUSE.

A memorial from the Iowa Legislature for aid to the Iowa branch of the Union and Pacific Railroad was presented and referred. Bills were introduced to establish a port of delivery at Council Bluffs; and for the benefit of certain Indians. The resolution to amend the act of July 2, 1862, granting lands in aid of colleges was discussed and finally recommitted.—The House non-concurred in the Senate amendment to the bill for the sale of Marine Hospitals, and referred to a committee the amendments to the Naval Appropriation Bill. The Senate amendments to the quarantine resolution were concurred in. The West Indies Telegraph bill, passed on Wednesday by the Senate, was taken from the table, read twice, debated at length, and finally referred to the Committee on Commerce. A message from the President and accompanying documents relating to the Republic of Mexico were received, referred, and ordered to be printed. A bill was introduced to allow persons who have expressed opinions on the subject matter of trials to serve on juries.—The Senate amendment to the Deficiency bill for expenses of the Joint Commission under the Reciprocity Treaty—relating to the fishery survey—was concurred in. The amendment striking out the proviso that no portrait of a living person shall be placed on any United States currency was non-concurred in, and a Conference Committee was asked for. A resolution was adopted directing an inquiry as to placing disabled volunteer officers on the army retired list. A resolution was introduced requesting the appointment of a Commission on the cholera to visit Constantinople. A bill was introduced to amend an act granting land to Michigan for wagon roads, and at 4½ o'clock the House adjourned.

SENATE.

MARCH 23.—Petitions were presented for an equalization of bounties; for a modification of the revenue laws affecting brewers and for the enforcement of equal rights in the Rebel States. The Senate insisted on its amendments to the Civil Appropriation bill, and appointed a Committee of Conference. A joint resolution to secure to colored soldiers the bounties to which they are entitled, was introduced and referred The resolution of the Missouri Legislature in favor of paying damages to the University of that State for losses by war were presented and referred. A report from the Secretary of War was presented in reference to the Chicago and Rock Island Railroad, which was referred to the Military Committee.—The case of Mr. Stockton of New Jersey was taken up and debated at length. The resolution that Mr. Stockton was duly elected and entitled to his seat was finally adopted by 22 to 21—Mr. Stockton voting Yes. The Senate then adjourned till Monday.

HOUSE.

A bill to aid the Kansas and Neosho Valley Railroad was reported and recommitted. Resolutions were adopted calling for a report of expenditures under the Indian Appropriation bill of 1865, allowing full pay to officers not mustered in by reason of capture, &c. The Pennsylvania Reimbursement bill was passed by 86 to 35. Mr. Blaine withdrawing his amendment. A resolution to pay officers and soldiers moneys withheld by Courts-martial was reported on adversely. A bill supplementary to the to the pension acts was passed. The Senate resolution concerning the publication of the United States laws was passed. The Loan bill was reported back from Committee with amendments and a proviso, and the House went into Committee of the Whole. After voting down several amendments and M. Hooper's substitute, the Committee rose and reported the bill and it was passed by 81 to 53. The House then adjourned.

MARCH 24.—Senate not in session. The House, to-day was devoted to speeches on Reconstruction.

SENATE.

MARCH 26.—The Senate devoted all its session to day to the consideration of the case of Senator Stockton of New Jersey.

HOUSE.

Mr. Moorehead presented the joint resolution of the Legislature of Pennsylvania, urging the repeal of the tax on crude oil or petroleum. Referred to the Committee on Ways and Means.

Mr. Stevens introduced a bill to authorize the building of a military and postal railroad from Cumberland on the river Potomac, in the State of Maryland, to the city of Pittsburg, in the State of Pennsylvania.

The testimony in the election case of Dodge against Brooks was reported from the Committee on Elections, with a resolution that James Brooks is not entitled to a seat in this House, and that William E. Dodge is entitled to a seat. Action will be taken on the case on Thursday next.

The House adjourned.

fore his lamented death, wrote to the Hon. J. M. Scovel, of New Jersey, as follows:

MY DEAR SIR: The case referred to is Luther vs. Borden, 7 Howard, S. C Rep., 1.

I did not say that the States were out of the Union in law by rebellion or in fact by the result of arms. On the contrary, I said the State governments ceased to exist in law by renouncing the Constitution and in fact by being expelled by arms.

Note the diversity The States are in the Union, or else we are bound to guarantee them republican governments. They have not republican governments; and that alone gives Congress the right to control the restoration under the power to guarantee

Sumner is getting right on this point.

Congress looks firm; but it must be wise as well as firm. If we go before the people next Fall on a negative issue, leaving Johnson's government in possession of the States, and simply refuse to admit them to Congress, we will inevitably be beaten. Congress must annul Johnson's governments, formally prescribe universal suffrage as the condition sine qua non of recognition, and propose to amend the Constitution, making it the supreme law of the land for all States, and go to the country on these measures, or the people will accept Johnson's governments as a solution and send representatives to admit their representatives.

Sincerely yours, H. W. DAVIS.
Baltimore, Md., Dec. 21, 1865.

Jeff. Davis.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Fortress Monroe dispatches report that Clement C. Clay has been permitted, on his parole of honor, to enjoy the liberty of the grounds within the walls of the Fortress during day time.—Jeff. Davis' health continues good, and he keeps up the same habits to which he has been accustomed for some time past, including his daily out-door exercise. He reads much, and keeps well posted on passing events. An officer who recently undertook to draw him out on Fenianism, met with a complete failure. Though a great portion of his time disposed to be social and conversational, he is frequently seized with fits of sourness and reticence. He seldom alludes to his trial.

COL. FRANCIS JORDAN, of Bedford county, has been appointed Chairman of the State Central Committee. His appointment gives general satisfaction. He is an able, honest man, and will conduct the campaign with ability, energy and success.

B. RUSH PETRIKEN, Esq., a noted politician died at his residence in Lock Haven, on the 19th inst., after a protracted and severe illness.

NOTICE.—The Rev. Geo. Huston, of Pittsburg, will preach in the Vanport meeting-house, on the second Sabbath in April, at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 P. M. (Local copy.)

☞ We call attention to the advertisement of J. M. Harton, Dentist, in another column. Mr. Harton is succeeding admirably, and his work gives general satisfaction. Persons desiring to see his work can call at his office and examine for themselves.

TOTAL ECLIPSE OF THE MOON.—March is to close out as January, with nights made beautiful by a full moon. The almanac tells us that on the evening of March 30th there will be a total eclipse of the moon. The time will be very favorable for observation as it begins at five minutes past 9 o'clock, is at its total obscuration at twelve minutes past 10, and begins to disappear at fifty-one minutes past 11. It will be visible throughout the United States.

MAN MISSING.—On the evening of the 12th inst., Robert Young and James Houk, of Eastbrook, left New Castle on foot for home, and after crossing the iron bridge and a few rods beyond Cochran's warehouse, Young's hat blew off when Houk left to procure a light, and on returning could not find Young. The supposition is that Young walked into the Neshannock, which being considerably swollen at the time was swept down by the current and drowned. Search has been made for the body, but so far has proved unsuccessful. He was aged about fifty years, and leaves a wife and family.—New Castle Gazette.

STOLEN MONEY RECOVERED—ARREST OF THE THIEF.—Some time in September last the office of the Pitts., Ft. W. & C. Railway, in Pittsburg was robbed of about $30,000, during the absence of the paymaster at dinner. The thief turns out to be a young by the name of Maguire, who was a messenger in the office at the time, and succeeded in covering up his tracks very skilfully for a time. A few days ago he was arrested in Philadelphia and brought to Pittsburg, where an examination was had before Alderman Butler, when he made a full confession in writing, and was committed to jail for trial in default of ten thousand dollars bail. About $15,000 of the money was recovered.

THE MANOWEE RAILROAD.—The preliminary surveys of this road made under the direction of Sigismund Locw, Esq., are nearly completed, and are located as follows: Down the Mahoning river from Youngstown, Ohio, to New Castle, Pa., and from thence to descend the Beaver river to Connoquenessing Creek, up which it extends to Zelienople, Pa., from thence up Break-neck Creek to Ebensburg where a branch will reach Butler, sixteen miles distant. Leaving Ebensburg, the road will follow Pine Creek to Etna and East Liberty, passing four miles to the eastward of Pittsburgh, and connecting with the Connellsville road at Four Mile Run. The grade of the proposed road is very light, being for a short distance not more than forty feet to the mile, and with but one hundred and ninety feet of a total rise, and a cut of sixty feet at the summit. The road will be sixty-eight miles in length, and will reduce the distance between Cleveland and Washington city, via Connellsville railroad and Point of Rocks, eighty-three miles.

BEAVER SEMINARY AND MUSICAL INSTITUTE.—The Hosmer Society, connected with this Institution, gave an entertainment on Wednesday evening last, to a large and appreciative audience. The performances consisted of Essays, Colloquies, Tableaux, &c. The ladies acquitted themselves with credit, and the audience went home well pleased.

Thursday evening witnessed the greatest triumph yet achieved by our own home institution, the Beaver Musical Institute. The Methodist Church was again filled to over flowing with a most appreciative, and we are happy to say, the best behaved audience we have ever seen in our town. The performance opened by the class in Gymnastics, who went through the exercises with the greatest ease and dexterity. During the evening the class also exhibited their proficiency with the rings and bells. Prof. Ambuhl's vocal class regaled the audience with three beautiful Choruses from the operas, sang with a great deal of precision and spirit. Miss Spencer, by her clean and artistic performance of Gottschalk's "Last Hope," did herself great credit, and reflected the highest praise on her able instructor. Miss Cox rendered Hoffman's "Fantasia on Il Trovatore" with a power and vim remarkable for a lady, showing the highest musical talent and persevering industry. Prof. Ambuhl, assisted by Mr. Mellor, of Pittsburg, played two of Gottschalk's great Concert Duetts, filling the house with a perfect shower of notes and harmony. Two players more at home on the instrument we have rarely seen, and the four hands went over the keys as if directed by one mind. In these pieces the audience had a splendid opportunity of hearing what immense resources are in a piano, and what can be brought out of it by those who know how to do it. Miss Dixon appeared before the audience several times, and every time created more enthusiasm with her charming facile voice and lady like self-possession on the stage. Her rendering of the "Cradle Song" was tender and pathetic in the extreme, and in the "Lost Birdling" she exhibited a surprising amount of executive skill. Miss Oliver's singing of the charming little ballad, "Milkmaid at the Spring," well deserved the enthusiastic encore she received. Miss Dixon and Miss Leckey sang the duett, "Sister Elves," with the highest degree of artistic finish. The rich roundness and depth of Miss Leckey's voice were fully shown in this piece.

The kind of music performed at this Soiree, and the way it was performed, showed a vast improvement over any of the previous efforts of the Institute. To whom do we owe this? To Prof. Ambuhl, in whom a thorough musical knowledge, executive skill, long experience in teaching, and the greatest enthusiasm for his art are united. Mr. Taylor has reason to congratulate himself that he has had the good fortune to secure so able a man and so affable a gentleman to take charge of the Musical Department. We feel that we but express the desire of every one present at the Soiree, when we tender to the Professor a hearty "Thank you."

Meeting of the Beaver County Agricultural Society—Election of Officers.

At a meeting of the Beaver County Agricultural Society, held at the Court House on the 10th inst., the following gentlemen were elected as officers for the ensuing year, to wit:

President—William Shrodes, Esq.

Vice Presidents—William A. Laird, James J. Hazen and John K. Potter.

Recording Secretary—William S. Barclay.

Corresponding Secretary—D. L. Imbrie.

Treasurer—Joseph C. Wilson.

Managers—Samuel Gibson, Nicholas Todd, Jordon S. Neal, A. B. Wolf, Robert Barclay, Hugh McGuire, Thomas Irwin, William Barton, John Baxter, John H. Beighly, Daniel Short, John S. Little, Robert Potter, Joseph Buchanon, Joseph Irons.

The report of the Treasurer was read and adopted, which shows a balance in his hands of $473 44.

On motion it was ordered that the advertisements of the Society shall be published in both county papers.

On motion the managers were requested to take into consideration the propriety of selling tickets of life membership and make report at a meeting to be held at the Court House on the first day of the June Court, at 7 o'clock, p. m.

Resolved, That the proceedings of this meeting shall be published in the county papers.

ROBERT BARCLAY, Pres't.
D. L. IMBRIE, Sec'y.

It gives us pleasure to state that Hon. B. B. Chamberlin, President Judge of this Judicial District, gave universal satisfaction last week. Members of the Bar, jurors, witnesses, and in fact all who were in attendance upon the Court, of all parties, were alike pleased with his manner, his promptness and ability. We state this because there is a general anxiety in the county to learn the truth in reference to this matter. We do not conceal the fact that there were those who were not pleased with the appointment, but we state what we know when we say that those who were in attendance upon the Court, who had opposed the appointment, were equally as well pleased as were the friends of the Judge. No man ever won more rapidly the good will of the people generally.

NO LIQUOR ALLOWED.—An adjourned Court was held in West Chester recently. Among the cases up was the report of the Jury laying out a road from the farm of Charles D. Phillips to the Cedar Hollow Station, in Tredyffrin township. It was in testimony that there had been a consumption of wine or other spirituous liquor at the "view," and the Court set aside the report for that reason.—Judge Butler remarked that he did not suppose that the "ardent" had any influence upon the highly respectable gentlemen composing the Jury; but the Court had made it a rule to discountenance its use. A new Jury was at once allowed.

DEATH OF NATHANIEL HOLMES, THE BANKER.—Nathaniel Holmes, the well known banker, died at his residence, in this city, on Saturday evening. Although he had for some time past been in failing health, the event was wholly unexpected until within the last few days, when he began to decline rapidly. Few among our citizens were better or more favorably known. As the head of an extensive banking house whose solid character was well known, he stood deservedly high for his many good qualities of head and heart. He was extensively engaged also in manufacturing pursuits, and was possessed of a liberal fortune. As an upright man, a correct citizen and a courteous gentleman, few among us possessed to a larger degree or was more worthy of the esteem of his fellow-citizens.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

SOLDIERS BEWARE.—An effort is now being made by some unscrupulous agents in Washington, to obtain possession of soldiers' discharge papers through the agency of country postmasters, who have unwittingly as we suppose, permitted themselves to be used for the purpose. They inform the soldiers that they are entitled to a bounty of one hundred and sixty acres of land, and offer to procure it for them if their discharges are forwarded to them by mail—There is no such bounty law. Soldiers serving in Mexico got a land bounty, but no such bounty has as yet been provided for soldiers of the late war.

600,000,000 Perishing Without the Bible.

For the salvation of these immortal souls, the citizens of Beaver county are respectfully and earnestly invited to meet in the Beaver U. P. Church on next Monday, at 7 o'clock, P. M., for the purpose of re-organizing the Beaver County Bible Society.

The object of the Society is to excite and cultivate a deeper interest in the Bible cause, to supply all the destitute in the county, by sale or gift, and to raise money to aid in supplying the destitute throughout the world

FRIENDS OF THE CAUSE IN BEAVER.

☞ There was found dead near Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, on the 8th inst., a man known to be Thos. W. Steele, a private in company D, 2d battalion, Thirteenth U. S. Infantry. The deceased was formerly of Pittsburg, and once belonged to Col. Black's regiment of Pa. Vols. Any further information can be obtained by addressing Sylvanus Denney, Sergeant company D, Thirteenth U. S. Infantry, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas.

Court Proceedings.

The first case tried was Swick vs. Barton. Trespass; verdict for defendant. This was an action against the collector of bounty tax in North Sewickly township, for levying on and selling property of plaintiff for bounty tax.

Commonwealth vs. Gallaghers; two indictments for assault and battery; verdict, guilty.

Same vs. Wm Cruse, indicted for larceny; verdict, guilty; defendant sentenced 18 months to Western Penitentiary.

Same vs. Patrick Joice; indictment assault and battery; verdict, not guilty on grounds of insanity. Defendant sent to county prison until reason is restored.

Same vs. A. Hendrickson; indictment, assault and battery. Nol. Pros. entered, on payment of costs by defendant.

Same vs. Adam Huff; indictment assault. Nol. Pros. entered on payment of costs by defendant.

Same vs. Kercher and Bimber—Charge, selling liquor to men of intemperate habits. Nol. Pros entered on agreement of defendants to quit the business entirely.

Same vs. J. H. Odell; indicted for Libel; true bill. Continued until next term.

2D WEEK.

Hon. L. L. M'Guffin presiding.—Wurtz, Austin & McVeigh, use of B. R. Bradford, vs. Sharer & Osburn.—On trial.

☞ The greatest fire ever known in the Venango oil regions, excepting that of the Maple Shade two years ago, occurred on Thursday last. The fire originated at the Ocean well, and from there communicated with other wells on Bennehoff run and Oil creek. Twenty thousand barrels of oil were consumed, eighteen engines, and a large number of wells destroyed.—One man was burned to death, and three others fatally injured. The loss is estimated at from $150,000 to $200,000.

☞ As will be seen by the advertisement in another column, James K. Pardee, of Rochester, has purchased a new stock of Drugs, Paints, Oils, &c., which he offers at the very lowest prices. He keeps and sells nothing but pure Drugs, Medicines, &c., and purchasers would do well to notice the fact. His assistant, Mr Brehm, is everywhere spoken of as one of the most thorough Chemists and Druggists in this part of the country.

OFFICERS OF THE P. FT. W. & C. R. R.—At the last meeting of the stockholders of this company the following officers were elected for the ensuing year. Most of them are re-elections:

President—Gen. G. W Cass.

Directors—J. F. D. Lanier, Louis H. Meyer, Samuel J. Tilden, New York; J. Edgar Thompson, Springer Harbaugh, Pennsylvania; Kent Jarvis, P. R. Springer, Hon. John Sherman, Ohio; Samuel Hana Jesse L. Williams, Pliney Hoagland, Indiana; Wm. Ogden, Illinois.

THE FROZEN GIRL.—The New Castle Courant says: We learn that the girl Louisa Blackburn, who was found in a haystack near Mount Jackson, so badly frozen that both her feet were amputated, has so far recovered as to be able to sit up and sew. It is not true as reported, that she is blind. She has lost the sight of one eye.

A TRAITOR TOAST.—The statement in one of the Philadelphia papers that at the regular meeting of the Copperhead Club in that city, Wm. B. Reed proposed the toast, "JEFFERSON DAVIS—the greatest statesman in America," is confirmed by the Telegraph, which pronounces it "literally true." Only one member, Mr. Josiah Randall, resented this indignity to our loyal states men, by withdrawing from an organization so openly traitorous.

☞ The election for borough officers of Rochester resulted as in the election of the following ticket: Burgess—A. Shallenberger; Ass't Burgess—Joseph R. Campbell; Council—Marshall Hays, G. C. Speyerer, Monroe Miller, William D. Johnston, Stephen B. Cross, Joseph Hays, E. M. Power, John H. Cable, G. Otto; School Directors—Samuel J. Cross, O. R. Coe; Judge of Elections—Capt. G. Pendleton; Inspectors of Elections—John McGowen, J. R. McClelland; Assessor J. B. Breckenridge; Constable—F. M. Anderson.

OIL IN GREEN TOWNSHIP.—We learn that the Peters' Oil Company struck a good well on Mill Creek, about a quarter of mile above Georgetown, on Saturday. From the indications it is thought it will prove a fifteen barrel well.

DIED:

At Bridgewater, on Sunday night, Mrs. MARY PROUDLY, in the 60th year of her age.

In Freedom, March 25th, 1866, JOHN W. ROBINSON.

Mr. Robinson enlisted in Co. F, 10th P. R. C.; was discharged on account of sickness; afterwards re-enlisted in the 76th P. V.; was taken sick on transport while under Gen. Butler in his expedition against Fort Fisher, from which he never recovered. He was very happy at times during the last few weeks of his sickness, and was perfectly willing to die. He knew he had a "title to a mansion in the skies," bade farewell with his friends, and wanted them to meet him in Heaven. He leaves a sorrowing widow and an interesting little boy; with many relatives, to mourn his death. K.

On the 23d ult., Mr. JAMES MURRAY, of Darlington township, Beaver county.

Not only has his family, consisting of a son and four daughters, lost a father and protector, but the public has also suffered a serious loss in the death of Mr. Murray. Throughout his whole life, a good part of which was spent in Beaver county, he bore the reputation of a kind-hearted and honest man. He was often entrusted by his fellow citizens with responsibility, and always discharged his duties to the public acceptance. This tribute is paid to his memory by one who has long known and admired his character. B.

OIL PROPERTY FOR SALE.

HAVING purchased from Jesse Smith sixteen acres of valuable oil territory, situated just above the Station at Smith's Ferry, we offer the same for sale in lots to suit purchasers, and at moderate prices. A number of producing wells adjoin the property, and it is all that can now be purchased at Smith's Ferry. The advantage in location renders it much more desirable than Island Run territory. A. W. Taylor or Capt. F. X. Reno may be found at the Ferry, to whom purchasers are referred. Apply to

Golden Periodical Pills,

FOR FEMALES.

Infallible in Correcting Irregularties, Removing Obstructions of the Monthly Turns, from Whatever Cause, and ALWAYS SUCCESSFUL AS A PREVENTIVE.

It is now over thirty years since the above celebrated Pills were first discovered by Dr. DUPONCO, of Paris, during which time they have been extensively and successfully used in most of the public institutions, as well as in private practice, of both hemispheres, with unparalloled success in every case, and it is only at the "urgent request" of the thousands of Ladies who have used them, that he is induced to make the Pills public for the alleviation of those suffering from any Irregularities whatever, as well as to prevent an increase of family, where health will not permit it. Females peculiarly situated, or those supposing themselves so, are cautioned against using these Pills while in that condition, as the proprietor assumes no responsibilities after the above admonition, although their mildness would prevent any mischief to health otherwise the Pills are recommded.

Price $1,00 per Box. Six Boxes $5,00.

Sold by S. Smith, Bridgewater, Noble & Hamilton, Beaver, S. Hannen, Rochester.

Ladies!—By sending $1,00 to either of the above agents, can have the pills sent (confidentially) by mail, to any part of the country, or address the Proprietor,

BIOKRENE OR LIFE-REJUVENATOR.

STRENGTH TO THE WEAK! YOUTH TO THE AGED!

This preparation is unequalled as a Rejuvenator and Restorer of wasted or inert functions.

The aged should be certain to make the Biokrene a household god, inasmuch as it will render them youthful in feeling and in strength, and enable them to live over again the days of their pristine joy. It not only exhilarates but strengthens, and is really an invaluable blessing, especially to those who have been reduced to a condition of servility, self abuse, misfortune, or ordinary sickness. No matter what the cause of the impotency of any human organ, this superb preparation will remove the effect at once and forever.

Biokrene

Cures Impotency, General Debility, Nervous Incapacity, Dyspepsia, Depression, Loss of Appetite, Low Spirits, weakness of the Organs of Generation, Imbecility, Mental Indolence, Emaciation, Ennui. It has a most delightful, desirable and novel effect upon the nervous system; and all who are in any way prostrated by nervous disabilities are earnestly advised to seek a cure in this most excellent and unequalled preparation.

Persons who, by imprudence, have lost their natural vigor, will find a speedy and permanent cure in the Biokrene.

The Feeble, the Languid, the Dispairing, the Old should give this valuable discovery a trial; it will be found totally different from all other articles for the same purposes.

TO FEMALES.—This preparation is invaluable in nervous weakness of all kinds, as it will restore the wasted strength with wonderful permanence.

It is also a grand tonic, and will give relief to Dyspepsia with the first dose. A brief persistence in its use will renovate the stomach to a degree of perfect health and banish Dyspepsia forever.

One dollar per Bottle, or six bottles for $5. Sold by Druggist generally.

Sent by express anywhere, by addressing HUTCHINGS & HILLYER, Proprietors,

81 CEDAR STREET, NEW YORK.

☞Sold at Marquis' Drug store, Rochester, one door below Post Office, and wholesale and retail by Dr. Smith, Bridgewater Beaver county. [nov23

IMPORTANT TO FEMALES

Will immediately relieve, without pain, all disturbances of the periodic discharge, whether arising from relaxation or suppression.—They act like a charm in removing the pains that accompany difficult or immoderate menstruation, and are the only safe and reliable remedy for Flushes, Sick Headache, Pains in the Loins, Back and Sides, Palpitation of the Heart, Nervous Tremors, Hysterics, Spasms, Broken Sleep, and other unpleasant and dangerous effects of an unnatural condition of the sexual functions. In the worst cases of Fluor Albus, or Whites, they effect speedy cure.

Dr. Cheeseman's Female Pills

Have been used OVER A QUARTER OF A CENTURY. They are offered as the only safe means of renewing interrupted menstruation, but Ladies must bear in mind that there is one condition of the female system in which the Pills cannot be taken without producing a peculiar result. The condition referred to is pregnancy—the result, mis arriage. Such is the irresistible tendency of the medicine to restore the sexual functions to a normal condition, that even the reproductive power of nature cannot resist it. They cannot do harm in any other way.

Dr. Cheeseman's Female Pills

Are the only medicine that married and single ladies have relied upon for many years, or can rely upon now. Beware of imitations! These Pills form the Finest Preparation ever put forward, with immediate and persistent success.—DON'T BE DECEIVED. Take this advertisement to your Druggist and tell him that you want the best and most reliable Female Medicine in the world, which is comprised in

Dr. Cheeseman's Female Pills!!

They have received, and are now receiving the sanction of the most eminent Physicians in America.

Explicit Directions with each Box,—the price, ONE DOLLAR per box, containing from 50 to 60 pills.

Pills, sent by mail, promptly, by remitting the price to the Proprietors, or any authorised Agent, in current funds. Sold by Druggists generally.

HUTCHINGS & HILLIER, Proprietors,

☞Sold Wholesale and Retail by Dr. S. Smith, Bridgewater; Dr. Marquis and J. H. Hannen, Rochester; John Moore, Beaver, and by all Druggists at New Brighton. [nov24:1y

"Use the Best!"

DR. CLOCK'S

EXCELSIOR HAIR RESTORER IS THE best ever offered to the public and the only one possessing all the merits claimed for it.—It restores gray hair to its original color, makes hair grow on bald heads when falling off from disease; removes Scruff, Dandruff, etc.; arrests its falling off, or turning gray; cures sick headache and all diseases of the scalp; causes harsh, wiry hair to become soft, pliable and luxuriantly glossy. It is elegantly perfumed, and all that can be desired for a dressing. It contains no sugar of lead or other mineral so injurious to the head and hair, and of which most preparations now in use are composed, but is a purely vegetable compound. WE CHALLENGE THE WORLD to produce an instance where the Restorer has failed when used according to directions. Among the thousands who have used it we have yet to learn of one who is not perfectly satisfied with its resuls. Hair white as snow is with marvelous rapidity restored to all its pristine beauty by its use. It is not a dye, but by supplying the secretions of the capillary glands acts as a restorer. Mothers, whose children's hair is harsh, wiry, or thin and scant, will find by using the Restorer it will immediately improve and may be dressed in any desired form, thus laying the foundation for a good head of hair, so desirable in after life. The proprietor is aware of the many who have been disappointed by the high sounding pretense of the numerous preparations with which the market has been filled for a few years past, but such entire confidence does he place in the merits of his Restorer that he offers, in all cases, to refund the money if, after a thorough trial of two bottles, it fails to give perfect satisfaction. A single trial will convince the most skeptical of its merits. Put up in large bottles and sold by all druggists at $1 a bottle.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW (Conserv.)
THE EDINBURGH REVIEW (Whig.)
THE WESTMINSTER REVIEW (Radical.)
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW (Free-Church.)

AND BLACKWOOD'S EDINBURGH MAGAZINE (Tory.

The American Publishers continue to reprint the above-named periodicals, but as the cost of printing has trebled, the price of paper nearly trebled, and taxes, duties, licenses, etc., largely increased, they are compelled to advance their terms as follows:

TERMS FOR 1865.

For any one of the Reviews	$4,00
For any two of the Reviews	7,00
For any three of the Reviews	10,00
For all four of the Reviews	12,00
For Blackwood's Magazine	4,00
For Blackwood and one Review	7,00
For Blackwood and any two Reviews	10,00
For Brackwood and three Reviews	13,00
For Blackwood and the four Reviews	15,00

The works will be printed on a greatly improved quality of paper, and while nearly all American Periodicals are either advanced in price or reduced in size—and very generally both—we shall continue to give faithful copies of all the matters contained in the original editions. Hence, our present prices will be found as cheap, for the amount of matter furnished, as those of any of the competing periodicals in this country.

Compared with the cost of the originals editions, which at the present premium on gold would be about $100 a year, our prices ($15) are exceedingly low. Add to this the fact that we make our annual payments to the British Publishers for early sheets and copyright in Gold—$1 costing us at this time (Jan. 1865) nearly $2,50 in currency—and we trust that in the scale we have adopted we shall be entirely justified by our subscribers and the reading public.

The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they may still, considering their great abilility and the different stand-points from which they are written, be read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every creed and party.

THE FOUR REVIEWS for 1863.

OUR PUBLISHING FACILITIES.

Determined to spare neither labor nor expense, our publishing facilities have been increased within the last few months, at an outlay of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars, placing us for some time to come beyond the reach of competition.

Extraordinary Success of the Commercial.

Although but just entering on its third year, the Commercial has already an unequalled circulation and influence throughout a wide and constantly extending district of country, embracing Pennsylvania, West Virginia and Ohio, while throughout all the west, and in the eastern cities, its circulation is by no means inconsiderable and rapidly growing.

Character and Aims of the Commercial.

Not strictly partizan, nor devoted to any peculiar ideas, the Commercial goes before the public on its merits, asking only just so much favor and patronage as it deserves, and its success can be said to be little less than extraordinary. Although in the future, as in the past, the Commercial will, in a special manner, be devoted to the interests of Pittsburg, it will continue to be Pennsylvania and Union paper, promoting the interests of labor, intelligence, and public and private virtue with whatever influence it can command or power it it can exert. Rising above mere party aims and influences, chained to no one idea, the organ of no sect or party, but believing in Freedom and Progress, and devoted only to truth, the Commercial will treat all public questions and express its views of public men in an independent and liberal spirit. To the present National Administration and the Union cause it will give a hearty tho' not servile support.

THE LATEST NEWS.

Few journals in the country spend so much money in obtaining the latest and most reliable intelligence as the Commercial. In a single item of telegraphing alone it paid during the last year on an average about One Thousand Dollars a Month—or more in one month, probably, than was paid by any other Pittsburg paper for the entire year.

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENTS.

We have also at the principal seats of interest, special correspondents, keeping a watchful eye on whatever is of interest or value to the public. No paper in the State has so large a corps of correspondents, and it gives us pleasure to be able to say that we are continually adding to the number writers of experience and ability.

OIL INTELLIGENCE

By common consent, the Commercial is the standard journal of the country with Petroleum dealers and operators everywhere. In this respect it has no competitor, and the facilities for obtaining this kind of information we are constantly extending.

OUR WASHINGTON DISPATCHES.

Through a Special Dispatch Bureau, maintained at a large expense, our Washington reports are as full and reliable as any, and are in no respect excelled by those of even the Metropolitan press. At this hour of great questions, these facilities are necessary to supply the demand of the public for news from the National Capitol.

MARKET REPORTS.

The Daily Reports of the Commercial of the Pittsburgh, all the leading Domestic and the Foreign Markets, are prepared by competent and experienced Reporters, and their widespread popularity attest their value. The amount of matter in this Department of the Commercial alone, frequently exceeds the entire reading pages of some of our cotemporaries.

THE FINANCIAL DEPARTMENT.

This Department is in the hands of a gentleman of experience and acknowledged ability, and his reports have at all times a special value.

The Local Department.

This Department of the Commercial is no excelled. To test the truth of this, take the local page of any of our neighbors, cut from it all that is not strictly local—letters from abroad and essays on abstract subjects, such as we classify properly on other pages, and exclude what no respectable paper should print—and then compare the remainder with our local page, which does not belie its name.

Editorial and General News.

With a corps of writers of acknowledged ability and experience, these departments of the Commercial compare favorably with the leading journals of the country—and we have only to say that nothing will be omitted that is necessary to maintain for our paper in these and all other respects this standing.

In short, in every department, and as a whole, the Commercial is a Sound, Comprehensive and Reliable Newspaper.

Whatever is offensive to a cultivated moral taste is scrupuously excluded from its column, and our constant aim is to publish nothing that does not serve some valuable purpose.—A peculiar feature of the COMMERCIAL is

"THE PULPIT,"

In which Department is given, every Saturday, a sermon furnished expressly for it. The reading specially prepared under the head of

FARM GARDEN AND HOUSEHOLD

Constitute another peculiar feature of great value.

THE DAILY COMMERCIAL

Is published at the following rates:

ONE YEAR	$10 00
HALF YEAR	5 00
QUARTER YEAR	2 50
PER WEEK, BY CARRIER	25

WEEKLY COMMERCIAL.

The weekly issue of the COMMERCIAL is not surpassed either in the amount or kind of matter given. It is made up expressly for the country reader,—it is filled with choice reading, the news, the market reports, general intelligence, Poetry, besides

A Sermon Every Week.

"Unquestionably the best Sustained work of the kind in the World."

HARPER'S NEW MONTHLY MAGAZINE.

Critical Notices of the Press.

It is the foremost Magazine of the day.—The fireside never had a more delightful companion, nor the million a more enterprising, friend, than Harper's Magazine.—Methodist Protestant (Baltimore).

The most popular Monthly in the World.—New York Observer.

We must refer in terms of eulogy to the high tone and varied excellent of HARPER'S MAGAZINE—a journal with a monthly circulation of about 170,000 copies—in whose pages are to be found some of the choicest light and general reading of the day. We speak of this work as an evidence of the American People; and the popularity it has acquired is merited. Each number contains fully 144 pages of reading matter, appropriately illustrated with good wood-cuts; and it combines in itself the ready monthly and the more philosophical quarterly, blended with the best features of the daily. It has great power in the dissemination of a love of pure literature.—TRENCH'S Guide to American Literature, London.

The volumes bound constitute of themselves a library of miscellaneous reading such as cannot be found in the same compass in any other publication that has come under our notice.—Boston Courier.
